Power of PARTICIPATION

Many of the unique opportunities that enhance every student's educational experience at SMUS can only be possible through the generosity of the SMUS community: current parents, staff and faculty, alumni, friends and past families.

Participation means more than just joining in; it sparks innovation, builds community, and creates opportunities for students; now and for the future.

| Junior School Priorities

In the Junior School imagination is endless, and curiosity reigns supreme! In this year's Annual Fund, we seek your support to enhance not only the joyful experiences but also the practical needs.

| Rooftop Garden Classroom: $50,000

By utilizing our rooftop, we can blend nature, biodiversity, and outdoor education into daily learning. This new space will include movable garden beds, flexible furniture, tools, and supplies, benefiting every student in the Junior School.

| Well-being Centre: $50,000

Challenges for young students come in many different forms. We need a calm, adaptable space for students to relax and recharge, and for our counsellor to provide individualized social-emotional support.

| Imagination Lab Expansion: $50,000

Expand the space and the possibilities, providing students with more room to create, discover, dream, and explore.

| Igniting Creativity: $15,000

Junior School students discover their talents through our annual musicals, art showcases, choir and strings performances. Help us expand upon these foundational opportunities and introduce even more enriching, creative experiences.

| Weekend Sports: $10,000

The Richmond Road campus comes alive each weekend with Junior School students running, jumping, throwing, and playing. This free program, delivered in different age groupings for all children from Junior Kindergarten to Grade 5, teaches sports FUNdamentals, while playing games, building skills, and gaining confidence.

| Gym Upgrade (Phase One): $50,000

Much-needed improvements such as new lighting, refinished floors, storage solutions, an expanded PE office, and updated equipment, will elevate the functionality of our gym, to better support Physical Education classes, sports events, and community gatherings.
